LIASCD Recap Fall 2023- Spring 2024

Fall 2023 Conference: September 28, 2023

Cultivating Caring Leadership

Angelique Johnson-Dingle from NYSED was the Keynote speaker; Regent Roger Tilles spoke and introduced Johnson-Dingle. There were 6 people who participated in the Roundtable Discussions. There were 3 breakout sessions with a total of 36 workshops. Each workshop was well attended, and the feedback was positive about the offerings we had provided to the attendees. There was 1 gold vendor and 10 Silver vendors that participated. There were 450 people at the conference with 19 Board Members included in count.

Spring 2024 Conference: March 1, 2024

A Day of Learning with Myron Dueck- From Passenger to Co-Pilot: Practical Ways to Assess with our Students.

The feedback from the conference was positive and attendees were excited by the message and energy that Myron Dueck brought to the conference. They were especially excited to learn about the new and exciting ways to engage students in authentic assessment, as well as Myron's thoughts towards leveraging artificial intelligence within our assessment practices. There were 233 participants in attendance, which included 1 guest speaker, 12 vendors, 6 volunteers, and 25 Board members.

Spring Networking Event: May 2, 2024

Inspiring New Leaders, an LIASCD Networking Event:

The 2024 networking event mirrored the structure of our previous gathering, focused on providing new and inspiring administrators time to meet with experienced administrators in various roles. Table panelists consisted of Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, Curriculum Specialists, Principals, and Assistant Principals. These individuals led discussions around their roles and responsibilities throughout the event. The panelists were both LIASCD members and recommended leaders from across Long Island. The event was well attended and there were great conversations and networking taking place throughout the evening. There were 92 people registered for the event with over 70 in attendance.
